

John Hartigan is an experienced Commercial and Federal sectors information technology and management leader, with more than 30 years of experience in Program Management, Finance, Capital Planning and Cyber Security. Dr. Hartigan is a subject matter expert in complex acquisition and systems engineering. He has extensive/expert knowledge of Commercial, Federal and DOD acquisition policy, including the DAG, DOD 5000, BCL, JCIDS, ERP's, FAR, DFAR and BEA. Dr. Hartigan's has over 25 years' experience of complex Information Technology and Communication systems as a senior military officer and government civilian. A Six Sigma Blackbelt, he is an advocate for Continuous Process Improvement and safety; his skills include CMMI, ITIL v3 fundamentals and ISO 9000. Dr. Hartigan is a Certified PMP, CISSP, CPHIMS, CHSP, Federal Information Technology Security Professional Manager and DAWIA Level III Program Manager. Dr. Hartigan is DAWIA Level II qualified in Systems Engineering and Business Cost Estimating and Financial Management (BCF). OSHA 30 trained